Learn From the Master Privately...Jim Cramer & Mad Money Talks!

One of the most unique auction items ever devised! You and three friends will be whisked away on a private plane which will leave from Dulles and take you to CNBC Studios in Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey for a private screening of the most popular financial show ever made...complete with guru and madman Jim Cramer, host of CNBC's Mad Money! Jim will personally greet and invite you into his studio for the live production of Mad Money, from beginning to end. You will watch the master captivate his television audience with bull and bear predictions as an amazing student of America's companies.

After the show, Jim Cramer and Federal Realty CEO Don Wood will treat you and your group to a wonderful private dinner where you should feel free to ask Jim anything that you'd like; from stock advice to companies to watch and watch out for, to his opinion on his beloved Philadelphia Eagles. Hotel accommodations for the evening are included at the luxurious Gild Hall hotel in New York City and the same private jet will have you back in your office by lunch time the next day! You will go home with gift bags that will help you remember your experience for a very long time to come.

Mad Money does not tape in front of a live studio audience, so this really is a private screening! Celebrities of Jim's caliber just don't do things like this very often, but his respect and enthusiasm for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation has made this a one time opportunity available to a select few. Come join Jim and Don for an experience you will never forget!
