SAY CHEESE!

Photobooths are all the rage with people who know what's "in." Here's your chance to bid on the use of a 1950's vintage, classic photobooth at your next festive event. They are present at weddings, corporate parties, reunions, graduations, birthdays, and other gatherings. All the guests jump inside the booth and act as silly as they were back in the day. A keepsake guest-book is created when all guests place their photos and write personal memories to the guest of honor. Your bid will include 4 hours of rental with a well experienced, fun loving attendant to assist your guests. This is more fun than you can imagine for all ages!

Donated by Photobooth Memories • Estimated Value: $1350

CHIPCARVED CANDLE HOLDER AND DECORATIVE BOOK

Enjoy these chip-carved pieces by artist Sue Bjerke. Chip carving is a historical art used to decorate common household items, walls, and lintels. This style of carving became a traditional way for common folk to decorate their homes as they did not have access to sophisticated carving tools. Chip carving remains a very handy method of creating decorative carvings today. These two items are made of Minnesota basswood and lightly sealed in order to preserve the color and integrity.

Donated by Sue Bjerke • Estimated Value: $120

COLLAGE BY JAMES KIELKOPF

Artist James Kielkopf has established a common ground of curvilinear geometric shapes and forms in both his paintings and recent paper collages. His earlier and recent paintings are constructed layers of masonite. His shapes are hand-cut, assembled and brush painted. Even though from a distance they appear mechanically produced, upon closer inspection they reveal the raw beauty of the artist's hand. His latest direction again incorporates the complex nature of the circle and numerous applications of various radii. These works, which are smaller in scale, feature select pieces of color paper ranging from shopping bags to exotic artist papers that are adhered to cut door panels. These pieces, like the paintings, reflect a handmade quality with an emphasis on color and composition.

UPGRADED WINE GALA

1982 CHATEAU CALON-SEGUR SAIN ESTEPHE #1

After a good ten years, we can once again find the unique style of the Saint-Estèphe appellation in the wines of this domaine which take their name from a river vessel known as “calon” and from the alliance with the Marquis de Ségur at the beginning of the 18th century. Recent vintages, the result of intense growing efforts and considerable investment guarantee the current owner, Madame Gasqueton, magnificent wines which will keep well.

Donated by Tom Miska • Estimated Value: $400

2003 QUILCEDA CREEK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Unlike some minuscule production “cult” wines or luxury cuvees culled from a winery’s primary product, which have earned perfect scores over the years, Quilceda Creek’s Cabernet Sauvignon is the winery’s raison d’être, and is produced in significant quantities (3,400 cases in 2002, 3,425 in 2003). Darker colored and significantly more powerful than the 2002, the 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon displays mouth-watering aromatics of black chocolate, sage, and blackberry liqueur. Its awe-inspiring core of cassis liqueur, violets, blueberry nectar, black cherry syrup, and chocolate is immensely muscular yet elegant. Texturally reminiscent of liquid velvet, it slathers the palate with oodles of fruit, displaying unreal depth, balance, and length. Wow! Projected maturity: 2010-2024. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate 100 points.

Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $325

2005 CLOE APALTA

Inky violet. Vivacious raspberry and candied-cherry aromas are strongly underscored by coconut and vanilla, which gain strength with air. Broad, fleshy and sweet, offering an array of red and dark berry preserve flavors, soft tannins and sneaky minerality. Finishes long and with improbable energy for such a rich, concentrated and even liqueur-like wine. Not for those who demand finesse, but fans of big-time, Napa cabernet should give this a shot. Wine Spectator, 96 points.

1982 CHATEAU CALON-SEGUR SAIN ESTEPHE #2

After a good ten years, we can once again find the unique style of the Saint-Estèphe appellation in the wines of this domaine which take their name from a river vessel known as “calon” and from the alliance with the Marquis de Ségur at the beginning of the 18th century. Recent vintages, the result of intense growing efforts and considerable investment guarantee the current owner, Madame Gasqueton, magnificent wines which will keep well.

2006 PAUL CAYMUS SPECIAL SELECTION CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Complex, riveting aromas of spice, cola and sassafras join wild berry, spice, black cherry and sage notes in this full-bodied, intensely flavored, tightly focused and very persistent display of fruit, which is long and lingering. Drink now through 2017. Wine Spectator, 94 points.

Donated by John and Lynnea Schwieters • Estimated Value: $800

2002 PRIDE MOUNTAIN VINEYARDS CABERNET SAUVIGNON RESERVE

The 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve (100 percent Cabernet Sauvignon) reveals a purple color along with a classic nose of graphite, creme de cassis, smoke, crushed rocks, and barrique. Surprisingly approachable, long, concentrated, and impressive with flawless integration of wood, tannin, and acidity, it can be enjoyed over the next 15+ years. 1,200 cases made. Wine Spectator 92 points.

2007 MURPHY GOODE ALL IN CLARET 6L

To put it simply, All In is “all there” and then some. All In is a blend of Murphy-Goode’s finest lots of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Petit Verdot, and like all of Murphy-Goode’s wines it is already approachable and quite seductive, even at a mere three years of age. Plenty of blackberry fruit, crème de cassis, pain grillé, vanilla, and smooth new oak await those fortunate enough to come by this very limited production claret or meritage offering.

SILVER OAK CELLARS ALEXANDER VALLEY COLLECTOR EDITION 1999-2004

We are pleased to present this rare vertical collection of 1999 through 2004 Silver Oak Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. Chosen from some of our finest vintages – this collection offers you the opportunity to taste six of our wines at different levels of maturity. All of the wines have been bottle aged in our cellar since their release and are drinking beautifully.

1983 RENE ROSTAING COTE-ROTIE COTE BLONDE

The Rene Rostaing “Cote Blonde” had a classic Cote Rotie nose of violets and meat. Classic style with a firm structure and smooth tannins, the fruit on the wine seems a little subdued and perhaps, just a bit past its peak, but with tons of complexity and minerality to take up the slack, the wine is very round and silky.

Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $85

1211

1984 LA LAGUNE 3RD GREAT GROWTH HAUT MEDOC

An absolutely fascinating wine. It is a concentrated, classic claret nose of cedar, pencil-shavings and ripe, sweet cassis fruit. Really bold and inviting. On the palate a solid mouthful of blackcurrant fruit, with a very attractive earthy, beefy, bloody, robust chewiness. The wine is not acidic while the tannins provide backbone without being harsh.

1212

1989 CORDEILLAN BAGES

“Super Pauillac - Best after 2008” (drinking wonderfully now). Still dark and rich, it shows the full body and velvety tannins of the hot, 1989 vintage, and has matured beautifully, with a mix of ripe, roasted fruit, tobacco and tar accents and an enticing floral top-note. It is perfect with steak. Wine Spectator 95 points.

Donated by Richard korinke • Estimated Value: $100

1995 CHATEAU PAVIE ST. EMILION GRAND CRU

Elegant and refined. Floral and fruity, with roses and blackberries. Medium-bodied, with fine tannins and a fruity, chocolate aftertaste. Best after 1999. Wine Spectator 88 points.

Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $90

1997 PAUL JABOULET AINE HERMITAGE LA CHAPELLE

“The moderately-intense bouquet exhibits plenty of ripe blackberry and cherry fruit, in addition to spicy, mineral characteristics. There is considerable weight and volume, but the wine is tight, and nearly impenetrable. This bottle leaves an impression of a large, deep, four-square monolith in need of 7-10 years of cellaring, at the minimum.” Wine Advocate 93 points!

2000 LE CLOS DU CAILLOU CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE LES QUARTZ

Full-bodied, with high glycerin, and a heady concoction of minerals, black raspberries, cherries, blackberries, and licorice, this layered, fruity, pure, well-balanced 2000 has a huge finish of nearly 50 seconds. Wine Advocate 94 points.

Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $60

2003 DELAS FRERES HERMITAGE MARQUISE DE LA TOURETTE #1

Produced from a crop size that was 60% less than normal, the 2003 Hermitage Marquise de la Tourette exhibits an inky/ruby/purple color as well as scents of charcoal, licorice, creme de cassis, and crushed rocks. It is full-bodied, powerfully tannic, and rich with marvelous purity and length, and a surprisingly low 13.5% alcohol. It should drink well for 20+ years. Wine Spectator 93 points.

Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $70

1217

2002 DOMAINE HUET VOUVRAY CLOS DE BOURG MOELLEUX PREMIÈRE TRIE

Giving little on the nose, but fruit and mineral nuances and an obvious purity. A fabulous weight and texture on the palate. Much more flavours than the nose would suggest, and exquisitely balanced. This is brilliant. What a vintage! One for the cellar.

1218

2003 DIDIER DAGUENEAU POUILLY-FUME SILEX

Great raciness for the vintage, this offers vibrant flint, citrus peel, smoke and floral notes allied to a steely backbone. Long, crisp, filigreed finish. This wine shows the power of the vintage, but keeps its typicity. Fine value. Drink now. Wine Spectator 93 points.

Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $100

2003 DIDIER DAGUENEAU POUILLY-FUME PUR SANG

Didier Dagueneau was widely known as the best producer in Pouilly-Fumé. Tragically, Didier passed away in a small plane crash on September 17, 2008. As Joe Dressner writes, “The wine world has lost a great vigneron, and the world has lost one of the most original, charming and mischievous characters to ever grace a vineyard row.” Beautiful pale straw color. Rich, viscous body that weighs nicely on the palate. Vibrant flavors of sweet grapefruit, tangy lemon and mineral. The fruit and acid are so delicately balanced - muscle and grace in a glass. A real testament to this late-great winemaker.

2004 DIDIER DAGUENEAU POUILLY-FUME PUR SANG

Before he passed away in a tragic small aircraft accident in September 2008, Dagueneau built a reputation as the cult producer of the Loire Valley. These densely concentrated and powerful wines of compelling originality benefitted from tiny yields, brutal selection, and unflagging attention to detail. No one has had comparable success to Dagueneau in using new wood with Sauvignon Blanc. These are the most expensive wines in Loire Sauvignon and deservedly so. Wine Spectator 91 points.

1985 DOW'S VINTAGE PORT

An attractive 1985 that's starting to show well, with aromas of cherry, spice and nut. Full-bodied; silky tannins; a long, sweet aftertaste. Wine Spectator 89 points. Donated by Vince Graziano • Estimated Value: $105

1227

1985 GRAHAM'S VINTAGE PORT

Medium-deep color. Somewhat tight nose, although the sweet fruit is there. Huge on the palate with perhaps the sweetest fruit so far, with notes of black cherries and blackberries. But there are many other dimensions to this 1985. It's a big, dense, chewy, complex port with a ton of tannin. The acidity is excellent. Despite its size and complexity, all of the components are in harmony. Very long finish. 1985 Graham is drinking very well right now; very much in the trademark sweet Graham style. Donated by Vince Graziano • Estimated Value: $150

1228

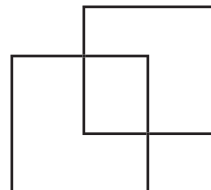

2000 DOMAINE ZIND HUBRECHT REISLING RANGEN DE THANN CLOS ST URBAIN #1

Deep bright orange-yellow color, almost light amber. Nose of smoke, ripe peach, peach preserves, apricots, and quince. On the palate, this pushes the envelope with its sheer weight and density, but manages to avoid cloying. It shows lemon, smoke, slightly overripe peach, and mineral flavors with a very long finish. There is enough acid to clean things up at the end and carry the wine. Ready now and a big Rangén. Wine Advocate 96 points. Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $80

1229

1994 ZIND-HUMBRECHT RIESLING TURCKHEIM

The 1994 Riesling Turckheim is made from the young vines (planted in 1978) of the Brand vineyard. It offers a more flattering, approachable style than the Gueberschwihr offering, with honeyed fruit, some of the tell-tale petroleum smell, which is so much a component in the mineral character of many Alsace wines. A layered texture, superb ripeness, and a long, rich, concentrated finish with crisp acidity. This dry, medium to full-bodied, impeccably made Riesling, should drink well for a decade. Wine Advocate 90 points. Donated by Paul Campbell • Estimated Value: $60

1999 FEUDI DI SAN GREGORIO TAURASI RISERVA PIANO DI MONTEVERGINE #1

“The 1999 Taurasi Riserva Piano di Montevergine cranks up the intensity level by many notches with its potent, penetrating raspberry and blackberry nose, mineral and tarry, and a packed, weighty, super-solid palate, whose tannins are just beginning to unwind and bring out the underlying velvet of their texture. The wine is beginning to be approachable, but I would suggested drinking is between 2006 and 2020.”-Wine Advocate, Robert Parker 95 Points

2001 FEUDI DI SAN GREGORIO SERPICO IGT

The 2001 Serpico, impenetrable and inky, staggeringly rich in both aroma and flavor, offers ultra-ripe but perfectly fresh berry fruit, cloves, cinnamon, and chocolate, and mouth-coating, deep-pile tactile sensations which combine iron power and a enveloping, voluptuous texture, infinitely deep and long. I would be amazed if this wine did not last thirty years. Robert Parker 98 points.

2001 RENATO RATTI BAROLO MARCENASCO ROCCHES

Good full red. Subtle aromas of cherry, raspberry, rose petal, mocha and brown spices, with hints of tar and eucalyptus. Juicy, bright and sharply delineated, with a powerful underlying spine. Very fresh, classy Barolo with lovely restrained sweetness; not at all dominated by its new oak. Less forthcoming today than the 2000 example, but this is distinctly more primary. Finishes with firm, but rather suave tannins and very good grip. ST 91.

2003 CASANOVA DI NERI, PIETRADONICE

This wine has gorgeous aromas of violets, blackberries and dark cherries follow through to a full-bodied palate, with velvety tannins and a long, flavorful finish. Balanced and rich, the wine has loads of character and opulent style. Almost “New World” like Cabernet Sauvignon with a dash of Sangiovese. Best after 2006 and only 945 cases made. JS Score: 93

2003 ISOLE E OLENA CEPPARELLO TOSCANA IGT

100 percent Sangiovese aged in French oak, 1/3 new, opens with an intense nose of very ripe fruit and sweet toasted oak. Round and supple on the palate, it presents terrific balance in its expression of the hot vintage, while preserving a surprising amount of freshness. It is an awesome effort from the inspired Paolo De Marchi. Anticipated maturity: 2008-2018 Wine Advocate 94 points.

2004 I.G.T. TUSCAN RED WINE

This wine is a deep, ruby-red tending to garnet with age. Its bouquet is complete and elegant, with an evidently aristocratic character, and hints of wood can be perceived amidst the typical herbaceous notes. The flavor is dry, full and smooth, rich with personality and well structured. Grape varieties: Selected Sangiovese grapes (50 percent) and Cabernet Sauvignon (50 percent), harvested by hand, cultivated on hilly ground composed of clay schist dating back to the Pliocene Era, at an altitude of 280m a.s.l. Those elements, together with the clay-base soil and particular climate, are the ingredients which create superior grapes.

2007 JEFF RUNQUIST BARBERA

The 2007 Amador Barbera has a bright purple color of good depth and intensity with a focus on raspberries, boysenberries, and plums. Notes of mild toasty oak along with, hazelnut, and hints of mocha and coffee add complexity and fill out the wine’s bouquet. The finish is long and harmonious with a toasty oak nuance that lingers long after the wine is gone.

2004 BERINGER KNIGHTS VALLEY CABERNET SAVIGNON 3L

After vinification this wine was aged in French and American oak barrels for 12 months, helping the flavors come together and imparting sweet oak and brown spice nuances. The resulting wine has a deep color with bright cassis, green tea, black olive and sweet vanilla spice aromas that lead into a fleshy mouth that has a big Cab flavor. Black fruit, cassis, and spice flavors are supported into a long finish by fine-grained, assertive tannins. 90 points Wine & Spirits: “The charred-oak sweetness of barrel time balances this wine’s dark, savory fruit, together combining in a plump, round cabernet. A mineral grip to the tannin keeps it honest and long. The sweetness and stony length will match rare roast beef.

2002 WOLF BLASS BLACK LABEL SHIRAZ CABERNET SAUVIGNON MALBEC

Sweet and fragrant, lovely fruit-driven nose with a dose of elegant, balanced mix of French and American oak. Pepper and spice from the Shiraz shines through on the breathtaking nose. Medium bodied palate with a silky, supple texture. Very fine black fruits on the palate and soft, smooth tannins that provide wonderful structure. Flavorful and with lots of poise, the cool vintage of 2002 really shows in this wine. Finishes long and lingering. It's rare to find a South Australian wine with such understated elegance. Also comes with Wolg Blass Wilson Tennis Raquet and bag!

2001 CHATEAU MONTELENA CABERNET SAUVIGNON THE MONTELENA ESTATE

The 2001 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate is one of Bo Barretts finest efforts. While tightly knit, 24 hours of aeration reveals its upside potential. Dense ruby/purple with a nose of crushed rocks, and intermixed with creme de cassis and a hint of licorice, this full-bodied, pure, deep offering will be at its peak between 2010-2025. It is a blend of 96 percent Cabernet Sauvignon and 4 percent Cabernet Franc that came in at 14.1percent alcohol. Wine Advocate 95 points.

2005 MARILYN MERLOT

The 2005 vintage Marilyn Merlot is a blend of 90 percent Merlot and 10 percent Cabernet Sauvignon. Note the added flavors and structure that Cabernet gives to the predominately Merlot based wine. The addition of 30 percent new oak barrels for this vintage gives the appropriate aromas of toasted oak and a more complex mouth feel from the new oak tannins. The fruit flavors are soft and mature. Vineyards for this wine continue to be from longtime growers ranging in location from Yountville to St. Helena in the middle of the Napa Valley.

BOGLE VINEYARDS PETITE SIRAH, N.V.

Petite Sirah is today considered Bogle's "heritage" varietal. Ripe summer blackberries and plums overwhelm both the nose and palate of this wine. Its trademark inky, jammy qualities are a barrage of black fruit and spice, adding layer upon layer of complexity. Notes of supple leather and toasty oak envelop the flavors through the finish, giving way to wisps of caramel and vanilla. The firm tannins make this a wine that can develop for years to come.

2005 BODEGAS PENALBA LOPEZ RIBERA DEL DUERO CYCLO CHRISTINA #1

The 2005 Cyclo Christina (a mere 150 cases produced) is 100 percent Tinto Fino from a single 150 year-old vineyard. It was barrel-fermented and aged for 21 months in new French oak before being bottled unfined and unfiltered. Its physiognomy and personality are very similar to the 2005 Cyclo. Opaque-purple colored, it reveals a fragrant nose of toasty new oak, pencil lead, floral notes, blueberry, and blackberry. This is followed by a plush, ripe, full-flavored wine with excellent depth and breadth. There is enough well-hidden tannin to support another 5-7 years of cellaring. It should approach its peak by 2015 and drink well through 2030. Robert Parker, 94 points.

2001 BODEGA NUMANTHIA TERMES TORO NUMANTHIA

Wonderful Tempranillo. Color is dark black purple to the rim. On the nose, plum, tar, black pepper, and smoke predominate. The palate reveals chewy plum, blackberry, smoke, and tar...presented in a very dense (almost impenetrable) package. Tannins are still large, and this wine needs a few more years (at least) to unwind a bit. Decanted for 4+ hours. Wine Spectator, 90 points.

1272

2003 BODEGA NUMANTHIA TERMES TORO NUMANTHIA

Dark purple and a beautiful nose of plum, blackberry, earth and charcoal. Massive sweet fruit on the palate of blueberry, plum and cherry with wonderful integration of earth, vanilla and charcoal. Looooong finish. Great balance that negates a high percentage of alcohol. Blended tannins. A great wine now, and for years to come. Wine Spectator, 95 points.

1273

2001 BODEGAS LAN RIOJA RESERVA CULMEN

As reviewed by Decanter Very, aromatic violet and blackcurrant fruit. Lovely, elegant, silky wine, with lots of perfumed cassis fruit, rich tanins and smooth, rich texture.

Drink 2007-15. Wine Spectator, 95 points.

2005 BODEGAS PENALBA LOPEZ RIBERA DEL DUERO CYCLO CHRISTINA #2

The 2005 Cyclo Christina (a mere 150 cases produced) is 100 percent Tinto Fino from a single 150 year-old vineyard. It was barrel-fermented and aged for 21 months in new French oak before being bottled unfinned and unfiltered. Its physiognomy and personality are very similar to the 2005 Cyclo. Opaque-purple colored, it reveals a fragrant nose of toasty new oak, pencil lead, floral notes, blueberry, and blackberry. This is followed by a plush, ripe, full-flavored wine with excellent depth and breadth. There is enough well-hidden tannin to support another 5-7 years of cellaring. 2002 KILLIBINBIN LANGHORNE CREEK SHIRAZ

This Australian Shiraz opens with a strong raspberry cordial flavor. It has a spicy feel with some cherry overtones and licorice/cocoa at the finish. An excellent wine from down under.

Donated by Julie Musselman and Scott Labat • Estimated Value: $40

2000 STAGS' LEAP WINERY NAPA VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON 1.5 L

The nose is filled with the scent of lusciously ripe red plums and black currants accented with violets and caramel. In the mouth the flavors expand, revealing red and black plums, vanilla, and traces of sweet caramel from the French oak. The flavors linger, leaving a persistent note of dried red cherry in the finish. Good acidity supports the wine's flavors and texture. Thanks to its breadth of flavor notes, the wine complements a wide range of cuisine. Wine Spectator 91 points.

Donated by Foster's Wine Estates - Paul Lorenzen • Estimated Value: $107

HOUDINI WINE KIT WITH 1 BTL OF 2005 CHATEAU ST JEAN CINQ CEPAGES CABERNET SAUVIGNON

This classic Cinq Cépages opens with generous aromas of boysenberry, black cherry and violet. Deep, dense and highly extracted, this wine offers layers of black raspberry, mocha and hints of blueberry. The palate offers a graceful balance between fruit extract and fine-grained tannins. This wine has beautiful oak integration and a lushness throughout that leads to a lingering finish. Wine Enthusiast 92 points. Comes complete with all the wine accessories you need to have an impressive wine bar!

Donated by Foster's Wine Estates - Paul Lorenzen • Estimated Value: $100

1999 FELSINA FONTALLORO (SUPER TUSCAN)

The forward 100% Sangiovese, barrique-aged 1999 Fontalloro's deep purple color is followed by a big, sweet, luscious perfume of spicy, toasty oak, cedar, fruitcake, leather, espresso, and black currants. Medium to full-bodied, with great fruit on the attack and mid-palate, and a long, opulent finish, this dazzling Italian red will drink well for 6-12 years. Rated a 92 by Robert Parker and in the middle of it's maturity: Drink: 2002 - 2014. This bottle has been faithfully cellared at 56degF (+/- 5degF) since purchased in 2004. It is a rarity to find a large format (3L) bottle of a Super Tuscan in this vintage. There were likely only 20-30 produced in this size. Wine
