We put the fun in fundraising

You're invited to join us for the 21st Annual American Airlines Celebrity Ski Weekend, March 2-5, 2006. You'll enjoy world-class skiing, fabulous food and extraordinary entertainment to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. And, you'll be pampered with an all-inclusive tour package tailored for our "who's who" list of celebrity skiers and guests. Best of all, you'll be helping in the fight against cystic fibrosis.

Your participation is worth millions of dollars to CF

CF is a genetic disease affecting approximately 30,000 children and adults in the U.S. The median age of survival for a person with CF is 33.4 years. To date, American Airlines Celebrity Ski weekend has raised millions of dollars to fund research for a cure for CF. Thanks to this event, significant advances have been made in the development of both gene and drug therapy as a treatment for the disease. However, continued funding is required to achieve the next crucial steps. Your participation will advance the cause.

Proceeds from Celebrity Ski fund medical research and care programs which are improving the length and quality of life of CF patients like Sam Pelican, Piper Beatty and Libby Pelican.

Vail, Colorado – second to none

Vail is once again the host resort for Celebrity Ski weekend. Considered by many to be North America's premier ski destination, Vail offers the most skiable terrain of any single-mountain. When you're not participating in the Race Clinic, Qualifying Races or Celebrity Team Races at the Black Forest Race Arena, check out Vail's 193 ski trails using the most expansive network of high-speed quad chairlifts anywhere. Afterwards, explore Vail Village, where charming shops, eateries, and activities round out this world-class destination.

Vail Cascade Resort and Spa

This year's event will once again be hosted by the Vail Cascade Resort and Spa, Vail's only AAA Four-Diamond resort. Located just steps away from the base of Chairlift 20, the resort's state-of-the-art facilities, fabulous Aria Spa, luxurious accommodations and attentive staff add a velvet touch to what will already be an unforgettable weekend. The resort offers a complimentary ski valet so guests won't need to carry their skis and poles to and from their hotel rooms.
